

Center for South Asia
STANFORD

Shades of Sovereignty

Lineages of Authority and Social Order in South Asia

Free and Open to the Public

Workshop

May 19th- 20th

Location:

May 19th- Encina Hall West, Room 219

May 20th- Okimoto Conference Room

Encina Hall Central, 3rd Floor

Organizers:

Thomas Blom Hansen, Stanford University

Eric Lewis Beverley, SUNY Stony Brook

Sanjib Baruah, Bard College

Carla Bellamy, CUNY Baruch

Shivaji Mukherjee, University of Toronto Mississauga

Sunil Purushotham, Fairfield University

Cabeiri Robinson, University of Washington

Ajay Verghese, UC Riverside

Madiah Akhter, Stanford University

Mircea Raianu, Harvard University

Shayan Rajani, Tufts University

Discussants:

Priya Satia, Stanford University

Ryan Perkins, Stanford University

Anjali Arondekar, UCSC

Sudipta Sen, UC Davis

This workshop seeks to examine the historical layers and contemporary shadowy forms of political sovereignty in modern South Asia. We seek to foster a conversation about the longer history of divergent ideas and practices of sovereignty across South Asia

Stanford | Political Science

